ASSAULTED AN INVALID.

Saloon Keeper Charged with a Crime

For Which Negroes Are Lynched.

COLUMBUS, Ga., Dec. 11.—From Seagriff, Ala., come the details of a shocking assault on Miss Minnie Martin, of this city, while on a visit to friends near that place. The assault was committed by George Dunstan, a saloon keeper and livery-stable keeper at Seagriff. Dunstan was employed to bring the young lady into Seagriff, where she was to take the Mobile & Girard train to return home. While on the way Dunstan overpowered the girl, who is almost an invalid from consumption, and when she was charged with the crime prevented the carrying out of the threat. He was known to be well armed, and succeeded in escaping.

REED IS FOR HASTE

THE SPEAKER ANXIOUS TO PASS A TARIFF BILL IMMEDIATELY.

He Is Advising Members of the House Who Desire Leaves of Absence to Stay in Washington.

MR. DINGLEY'S PROGRAMME

TARIFF HEARINGS TO BEGIN WITH HOLIDAY RECESS OF CONGRESS.

Several Schedules of the Wilson Act to Be Retained—Ways and Means Committee to Meet Monday.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Speaker Reed is bent on putting the new tariff bill through the House as soon as possible. He is anxious to get the bill passed before the holiday recess of Congress begins. Reed is anxious to get the bill passed before the holiday recess of Congress begins. Reed is anxious to get the bill passed before the holiday recess of Congress begins.

The bill making appropriations for the army establishment for the fiscal year 1897 was completed by the House military affairs committee today. Chairman Hull expects to report the bill to the House promptly, and will call it up for consideration early next week. The amount carried is $23,122,400, $156,000 less than the current fiscal year and $719,000 below the estimates, cut throughout, being mainly due to the omission of the $100,000 for the purchase of new uniforms for the army. The strength of the army, instead of for its full legal limit, for which the estimates are $23,122,400, is the amount asked for the pay of the army, for subsistence and for the quartermaster's department. The committee granted all that was asked for the ordnance department, at $25,000,000 for the purchase of new uniforms for the army (an increase of $25,000) and $400,000 for the repair and manufacture of arms. The only important item of new legislation is a provision turning over to the Interior Department the hospital at Hot Springs. The Interior Department will be granted authority to lease the hospital to individuals, and will be authorized to receive a source of revenue to the government.

Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, has introduced a bill in the Senate declaring the intent of the act of 1881 indemnifying the States for expense in maintaining the national defense. By a decision of the Court of Claims the interest on the money was not allowed. This was overruled by the Supreme Court in 1881. The bill had passed upon the claims it refuses, under the Docket law, to reopen the question of the interest on the money. Mitchell bill is to cover this point. Nearly every State is interested in the matter, as interest charges have been both.

Representative Beahm, of Louisiana, has introduced a bill increasing the salary of the speaker of the House from $5,000 to $10,000, and of senators and representatives from $5,000 to $7,500.

CREEDON WON THE FIGHT

THE AUSTRALIAN OUTFOUGHT AND OUTPOINTED DICK O'BRIEN.

And Was Awarded the Honors of the "Mill" Before the Close of the Ninth Round.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—At the Broadway Athletic Club to-night Dan Creedon, of New York, fought and outpointed Dan O'Brien in nine rounds. From the beginning of the bout until the referee intervened and stopped the mill, when the ninth round had nearly expired, the work of both men was very rapid, and they worked so hard that during the last three rounds the crowd would have set the ceiling on fire. Creedon was undoubtedly the better man, and there was not a word of protest uttered when the referee gave his fiat. There were about 3,500 persons present in the clubhouse to see the fight.

Preliminary to the big fight, Eddie Curry, of New York, and Billy Waukner, of New York, fought and outpointed Dan O'Brien in nine rounds. Curry got the decision, and a large majority of the audience hissed the referee vehemently.

O'Brien was the first to make his appearance for the star bout of the night. He was accompanied by his manager, Dan Waukner, and a number of friends. He was a small, dark, and very active man. He was a native of Ireland, and had been in the United States for some time. He was a very good fighter, and had won many fights. He was a very good fighter, and had won many fights. A SCANDAL RECALLED

SUICIDE OF MRS. SARAH COOPER

AND HER DAUGHTER HARRIET.

Prominent San Francisco Women Who Were Active in the Prosecution of Rev. Dr. C. O. Brown.

LOST MANY OF THEIR FRIENDS

AND BROODED UNTIL THEY CHOSE DEATH BY ASPHYXIA.

Mattie Overman, Who Is Now a Salvation Army Officer, Excoriated by the Disgraced Preacher.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—The death by asphyxiation of Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper and her daughter Harriet this morning has produced a profound sensation in this city. No woman in San Francisco, or on the entire Pacific coast, was so prominent as Mrs. Cooper, who devoted her life to religious and philanthropic work, and was actively connected with every reform movement. She was a cousin of Col. Robert Ingersoll, a religious writer, despite their opposite religious views, she maintained a warm friendship. Mrs. Cooper was president of the Kindergarten Association and her daughter was deputy superintendent. Mrs. Cooper had lived here thirty years and was widely known as an educator and for her philanthropic work. She was president of the Women's Press Association, president of the Woman's Suffrage Association and prominent as an officer of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. For many years she taught the largest Bible class in the city, in the First Congregational Church, her class numbered several hundred members. She was assistant pastor of the church under the pastorate of Rev. Dr. C. O. Brown. The Coopers had lived alone, except for a Chinese cook, who had been in their employ for twenty years. He has not yet been found. It is expected he can throw some light on the tragedy.

When the scandal concerning Dr. Brown was first talked about Mrs. Cooper stood by
